January 30, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TRAINING CAMP LOCATION CHANGE ANNOUNCED FOR 39TH ANNUAL MINNESOTA HIGH SCHOOL ALL-STAR FOOTBALL GAME

The Minnesota Football Coaches Association (MFCA) is pleased to announce that the training camp for the 39th Annual Minnesota High School All-Star Football Game will be held for the first time at St. John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota. St. John's University will be the 10th training camp location in the history of the Minnesota High School All-Star Football Game. Most recently, the All-Star Football training camp was held at Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minnesota from 1999 to 2011 (13 years).

Previous All-Star Football Game training camp locations:

1945	University of Minnesota - Northrop Field
1946	Carleton College, Northfield (North), Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter (South)
1952-1960	Shattuck School, Faribault
1974-75	University of Minnesota - Memorial Stadium
1976-84	Macalester College
1985-96	University of Minnesota - Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex
1997	University of Minnesota & Augsburg College
1998	St. Olaf College, Northfield
1999-2011	Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter

The 2012 All-Star Football Game will be held on Saturday June 30 at TCF Bank Stadium on the campus of the University of Minnesota. The kick-off will be at 1:00 PM, making this the first afternoon All-Star Football Game since 2004. The All-Star Football Game will showcase outstanding senior players from the 2011 high school football season.

The 2012 All-Star Game will be the 39th in the current annual series and the 50th overall. For the second year and for the 19th time overall, the game will feature the North All-Stars versus the South All-Stars. In the 2011 game, the North All-Stars defeated the South All-Stars 17-7 at TCF Bank Stadium. The North leads the current North-South series 1-0. The North leads the overall North-South series 9-8-1.

Upcoming announcements and events:
